

26 June 2019

Worm gear brings mountain drive over hill and dale

Nozag has supported JST Multidrive AG with engineering so that wheelchair users can also overcome 32° inclines. Using two worm gears, one wheelchair became the prototype of the Mountain Drive, which takes its users to the pilgrimage path or the Stockhorn.

>> Join us on a journey with the Mountain Drive!

Chain calculations - find it on NOZipedia

The calculation database NOZipedia has been greatly expanded in the area of chains and you now can also calculate online pitch circle diameters, chain lengths and number of chain links online. NOZipedia is accessible for you at any time and supports you with various standard calculations.

>> Try it right here!

Do you know the other formula ranges of NOZipedia? >> Click here to go to the area of worm gear screw jacks, gear wheels, etc.
...

Always available for you!

Summer - time for a break and relaxation. We grant it to you! Nevertheless, during July and August we are at your disposal that you always receive competent advice and have access to drive components. Challenge us therefore also during the summer months - we shall be happy.

Drive Components from Nozag - Extract from the Product Range

In addition to complete gearboxes and drives, you will also find a wide range of standard parts, which we also machine as ready to install. Furthermore we also manufacture components according to your drawing – if required especially designed for you.

Follow us on Social Media!

